HCL Tuesday Morning Reading Group

The Tuesday Morning Reading Group meets on the first Tuesday of each Month to talk about a book that we have all read. We read mainly fiction but also enjoy the occasional non-fiction book.

Books are sometimes from stock which Ealing Libraries hold for reading groups and sometimes books chosen from recommendations within the group.

We welcome new members, the only criteria is to enjoy reading and discussing books. If you are interested come along to one of our meetings.

Meetings are held at 10.30am on the first Tuesday of each month at Hanwell Community Library.

Hanwell Library Youth Club

Aged 14-17 and looking to meet like-minded people?

Why not come along to our youth club? Games, music, tea, coffee and biscuits!

Email HCL@hanwellcommunitylibrary.org to sign up.

Volunteer news

Would you like to volunteer?

Here at Hanwell Community Library, we are always looking to welcome new volunteers!

Whether you would like to help run the Library on a day to day basis or there is a specific event or club you would like to run, there is a place for everyone!

Public facing volunteer roles include activities such as:

- Registering new users
- Issuing books
- Returning books
- Renewing books
- Shelving and sorting library stock
- Helping answer customer questions

If this sounds like something you would enjoy, please fill in the form on the 'Get Involved' section of our website:

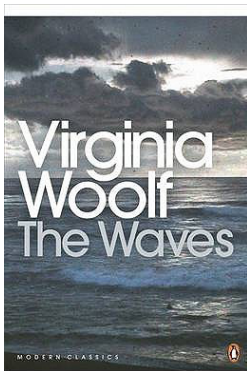
hanwellcommunitylibrary.org.uk/volunteer/

Or ask at the Library front desk for a physical copy of the form.

Volunteer book review

by Safiya Talbi

The Waves
by Virginia Wolfe



"The sun had not yet risen." Virginia Woolf begins. Onwards, Woolf tells us a storythrough the eyes of Bernard, Susan, Rhoda, Neville, Jinny, and Louis - six lifelongfriends - to discover the very roots of human experience, behaviour, and progression. Woolf's velvet vocabulary encapsulates the reader in a sense of clarity, allowing anintimate light into the intricate bonds of humanity. Themes of individuality, societalcomplexity, and the philosophy of the meaning of life align seamlessly into a buddingorchestra of unique poetic prose of genius. We witness the power of vulnerability,seclusion, unity, and how each living moment has the potential to be completely lucidwhen embraced. At the end, through Virginia Woolf's profound literary power, we ask:Is it only through the other, the external environment, that we truly find ourselves?

Thank you and welcome!

The Library would not be able to run without the help of all of our fantastic volunteers who regularly give up their own time to ensure that the library is an inviting and inclusive place for all users. Thank you everyone!
