Hanwell Hootie

As fans of the Hanwell Hootie, we were delighted to host their Youth Stage last weekend! Bringing the vibrancy of live music and young talent to our building is such a pleasure and we can't wait to continuously provide opportunities to showcase passion and talent in our space in the future. Please reach out if you'd like to host an event.

Did you know we accept donations?

Like our favourite museums, here at Hanwell Community Library our maintenance, activities, and the services we provide are benefitted by the generosity of our users.

How to make a donation to support the library:

Scan the QR Code (right), click on the link below, or visit our front desk for direct card payment

https://www.paypal.com/donate/?hosted_button_id=M3E32KDRJWWUU

Thank you for your support.

We understand that not everybody is in the position to provide financial support, if you would like to support us by becoming a volunteer or have other suggestions, please reach out!

What would you like to see in our library newsletters? Get in touch and let us know!

May's book releases!

From coming-of-age and Romance, to Children's Fiction and Crime, May is a busy month for new releases.

Here are some we're looking forward to.

*These books may not be available at Hanwell Library, but please check the wider catalogue.

Children's

Astro Chimp
David Walliams (23 May))

Chump the chimpanzee was always being silly. He would:

- make rude noises from BOTH ENDS...
- pick his nose with his little toe...
- eat the skins of bananas, hurling out the tasty part inside.

NASA's scientists thought he'd be the PERFECT chimp to send into space.

Something Maybe Magnificent
R L Toalson (28 May)

To protect her mom - and the family dynamic she's used to - from this unwanted interloper (mum's new boyfriend), Victoria will do what it takes to send him packing. But when she goes too far, Victoria realizes all she's done is ruin a good thing for her mom. Is it too late to set things right? This is perfect for 10-12 year olds.

Cloud Puppy
Kelly Leigh Miller (28 May)

Narwhal and Jelly meets The Amazing World of Gumball in this first book in a delightful graphic novel chapter book series about Cloud Puppy—part puppy, part cloud, and all adorable—and her forays into friendship, adventure, and all things geeky!!!

Young Adult & Adult's releases

The Ministry of Time
Kaliane Bradley (7 May)

A genre-bending sci-fi novel, followinf a civil servant and their responsibilities with the Government's time travel research program. Is time travel possible without suffering negative consequences? Can connections flourish where time travel is involved?

Joe Nuthin's Guide to Life
Helen Fisher (May 28)

A thoroughly uplifting novel about a neurodivergent young man who unexpectedly builds a community and saves a friend in need by following--in a way only he can--his mother's words of wisdom.

The Hazelbourne Ladies Motorcycle and Flying Club
(7 May)

Whip-smart and utterly transportive, The Hazelbourne Ladies Motorcycle and Flying Club is historical fiction of the highest order: an unforgettable coming-of-age story, a tender romance, and a portrait of a nation on the brink of change.

Loneliness & Company
Charlee Dyroff (7 May)

In a shabby house, on a shabby street, in the new capital of Madrid, Luzia Cotado uses scraps of magic to get through her days of endless toil as a scullion. But when her scheming mistress discovers the lump of a servant cowering in the kitchen is actually hiding a talent for little miracles, she demands Luzia use those gifts to improve the family's social position.

The Wealth of Shadows
Graham Moore (21 May)

An ordinary man joins a secret mission to bring down the Nazi war machine by crashing their economy in this thrilling novel based on a true story, from the Academy Award–winning screenwriter of The Imitation Gameand bestselling author of The Last Days of Night.

Knife River
Justine Champine (28 May)

When Jess was thirteen, her mother went for a walk and never returned. Jess and her older sister, Liz, never found out what happened. Instead, they did what they hoped their mother had done: survive. As soon as she was old enough, Jess fled their small town of Knife River, wandering from girlfriend to girlfriend like a ghost in her own life, aimless in her attempts to outrun grief and confusion. But one morning, fifteen years after their mother's disappearance, she gets the call she's been bracing for...

Would you like to volunteer?

Here at Hanwell Community Library, we are always looking to welcome new volunteers!

Whether you would like to help run the Library on a day to day basis or there is a specific event or club you would like to run, there is a place for everyone!

Public facing volunteer roles include activities such as:

- Registering new users
- Issuing books
- Returning books
- Renewing books
- Shelving and sorting library stock
- Helping answer customer questions

If this sounds like something you would enjoy, please fill in the form on the 'Get Involved' section of our website:

hanwellcommunitylibrary.org.uk/volunteer/

Or ask at the Library front desk for a physical copy of the form.

Thank you and welcome!

The Library would not be able to run without the help of all of our fantastic volunteers who regularly give up their own time to ensure that the library is an inviting and inclusive place for all users. Thank you everyone!
